

Gov. Bobby Jindal looking to bag contributions, ducks

By The Times-Picayune

December 20, 2009, 6:00AM

Pelican Briefs: News, notes and insights on Louisiana politics

Wild ducks of Cameron Parish beware: You're about to be a victim of state politics. Known for his frequent travel to campaign fundraisers around the country, Gov. Bobby Jindal is inviting supporters to join him in his home state at the "first Jindal Fun Hunt Fundraiser" on Jan. 3-4, hosted by his Secretary of Natural Resources and Cajun outdoorsman Scott Angelle. The Friends of Bobby Jindal campaign organization is asking $5,000 per person for the event. The fun starts on a Sunday afternoon at the "luxurious, Orvis-endorsed, Grosse Savanne Lodge" followed by an early Monday morning hunt.

Bob Marshall/The Times-Picayune

Ducks like these could be at risk in a fund-raiser for Gov. Bobby Jindal.

Robert Travis Scott