Gov. Bobby Jindal said today that he is nominating Scott Angelle to serve as lieutenant governor.

Angelle would temporarily replace Mitch Landrieu until an election can be held. The legislature would have to confirm his appointment.

Jindal said Angelle will take leave from his regular job as secretary of natural resources.

take leave?????. So he gets 2 salaries at the same time and his job is waiting whenever. If he is not elected in an election, I guess he goes back to his overpaid job.

Did it say "Leave WITH pay?" No it did not. Perhaps he is only getting the salary of Lt. Gov while serving as Lt. Gov thus SAVING the state money by not paying 2 different salaries. Also, why is he assumed to be overpaid simply because he works in government. Government IS something we have to have remember.
